EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES LEGAL SUPPORT PROGRAM

The NJIIF is pleased to announce that it now offers rapid access to labor and employment law attorneys who are available to provide advice regarding workplace employment issues, including those matters arising as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. Our objective is to address emerging workplace employment issues before they result in adverse exposure for the NJIIF's member communities.

Each NJIIF Member is entitled to approximately five (5) hours of no-charge access to the designated labor and employment attorneys listed below. We encourage you to reach out to our consulting panel or our office if you have any questions.
